

STS PROGRAM

The STS is the acronym word which is abbreviated by three words, where;

S	T	S
Social Entrepreneurship	Time Management	Study Skills

This program is prepared for ordinary, advanced secondary schools, colleges or university level students. The STS program aim at transforming YOUTH on how become new, energetic and creative focused young men who will practice the knowledge [STS knowledge] in their real life.

Although the program is relevant to the above mentioned groups of students [beneficiaries], still it must be merged to all as one package for it is useful for every student or grandaunt of all levels.

The differences in levels have to be deeply considered in order to achieve the effectiveness of the program.

Students in ordinary level are to be separated from advanced and college level in study skills.

The training package for all levels will include social entrepreneurship as a key point to open the thinking and creativity skills to all, while study skills may deal with general and specific skills basing on the level and target of study. Time management will remain to a core point in the whole life program which compulsory to all regardless of the academic level.

THE MAIN OBJECTIVES

The STS program which will deal with youths by empowering through training has the following objectives namely;

- Transforming the Muslim society from passive to active community participation, the real sound way of life.
- To impact the basic knowledge on creative and thinking skills.
- To train on how to discover and utilize one's potential talent and opportunities available in present area.
- To create a potential youth generation responsible and accountable to the ummah and whole nation.
- Inculcates the spirit of volunteerism in the youth and engage them in community services and nationalism.

- To enable the youth think positively with growth mindset and avoid fixed mind.
- To motivate inner self of young people and make them analyze their community and know needs and issues to be tackled
- To prepare the productive Youth who will have, effective utilization of their power, time, energy, knowledge and talents for the ummah and nation in general.
- To facilitate youth in adapting a mission to create and sustain community and social values

These objectives are set to prepare the youth and be ready for positive changes in the society and have a sense of volunteering.